

IN THE DRAWINGS

The Examiner objects to the drawings. In particular, the Examiner notes that the drawings are informal. Further, the Examiner notes that number 24 is not detailed in Figure 1.

The applicants will provide formal drawings when the application is allowed. Further, the applicants have labeled number 24 in a proposed corrected drawing for the Examiner's approval. Thus, the applicants believe that the objection to the drawings has now been overcome.